

Chuck Roelofs named Director of Materials Management

WILLMAR, Minn. (April 23, 2010) – Rice Memorial Hospital is pleased to announce that Chuck Roelofs has been named Director of Materials Management. As director, Roelofs is responsible for the hospital's supply chain, which includes purchasing, shipping, receiving, general stores, value analysis, and working with all of the Rice entities both owned and managed.

Roelofs began his new position on April 12, 2010. "I am very proud to have the opportunity to work directly with the management team at Rice," said Roelofs, "in order to help achieve the strategic goals relating to the clinical and financial performance components."

Roelofs began his career with Rice Memorial Hospital in 1977 as the Shipping and Receiving Clerk as part of the Comprehensive Employment Training Act provided to Vietnam Veterans. He has served in various capacities within Materials Management, most recently as Manager of the department. He received his Associate of Arts degree in Liberal Arts from Ridgewater College. He has been involved in related supply chain professional organizations on a local, state, and national level.

Roelofs lives in Willmar with his wife, Sandy.
